Meeting Someone New

A Social Story About
Getting to Know a New Person

1

I Notice Someone New

New people may join my class, group, neighborhood, or activity.

Ask Together

What could you do during this step?

I Pause and Observe

I can watch for a moment and decide whether I am ready to interact.

Ask Together

What could help with this feeling?

I Choose a Greeting

I may wave, smile, say hello, or use my communication device.

Ask Together

What words, pictures, or gestures could you use?

I Share My Name

I can share my name if I feel comfortable.

Ask Together

What could you do during this step?

I Ask One Question

A simple question about an activity or interest may help us connect.

Ask Together

What words, pictures, or gestures could you use?

I give the person time to answer in their own way.

Ask Together

What could you do during this step?

I Share Something About Me

I may share one interest, favorite activity, or helpful fact about myself.

Ask Together

What could you do during this step?

I Respect Personal Space

I stay at a comfortable distance and ask before touching.

Ask Together

What could you do during this step?

I Choose What Comes Next

We may talk, play, sit nearby, or politely continue separate activities.

Ask Together

What could you do during this step?

Meeting someone does not require instant friendship. I communicated respectfully.

Ask Together

What part of this story are you proud of?
